

You'd make a great mentor!

Help a newcomer to Canada succeed in their career.

This is the volunteer opportunity you've been looking for.

You can help change someone's life by giving 18 hours over three months to help them with their job search in Canada.

It's flexible, rewarding and you'll learn how to be a leader in today's diverse workplace.

Become a mentor if you:

Want to support immigrants. 1.5 hours per week over three months can help someone jumpstart their life in Canada.

Are thinking about your professional legacy. With 2+ years of work experience in Canada you have a lot of insight to share.

You want to advance your leadership skills. Mentors feel more empowered in their own careers.

An immigrant in your professional field is waiting for a mentor like you.
